This week, the class of home video releases is "Gossip Girl: The Complete Fifth Season" (Warner Home Video).

The DVD contains all 24 fifth-season one-hour episodes, but the five-disc set offers fans so much more. Never-before-seen special features include two all-new featurettes that celebrate the show's 100-episode milestone. Other extras include unaired scenes and a gag reel.

The fifth season delivered 1.5 million viewers weekly for good reason. Besides other good storylines, the one that involved the surprise return of Serena's cousin Charlie stood out because of the threat to destroy the Van der Woodsen family from within.

Other titles

Releases this week also include "Batman: The Dark Knight Returns, Part 1" (Warner Home Video) in which "RoboCop" star Peter Weller leads a voice cast in an animated Blu-ray combo pack and DVD. This PG-13 film follows Bruce Wayne a decade after hangin up his cape until Two-Face riles him up.

Also, "Through the Eyes of a Caddy" (MVD Entertainment Group) features Masters caddy Carl Jackson, who had caddied at Augusta National Golf Club for more than 50 years. Besides caddying for Ben Crenshaw for 36 yeras, leading him to two Masters victories, he also caddied for several U.S. presidents, and football and basketball coaches. He shares him game-winning tips and more.
