“Through The Eyes Of A Caddy”

“Golf tips from the other side of the bag, featuring Master’s Caddy, Carl Jackson”

Amos Lassen

Carl Jackson is a Masters caddy and in this DVD he shares tips on golf with us and who is better prepared to do so? Jackson has caddied for over fifty years and for several American presidents, for several winning basketball and football coaches as well as for several big names of Wall Street. He has formed a deep friendship with Ben Crenshaw and they have been friends for over 36 years and in fact, Jackson helped him win the Masters’ twice.

Jackson is known as a Masters Caddy has learned tips from both pros and amateurs on how to improve one’s game and on this almost hour long DVD we get pearls of wisdom and interviews with many who know and love him. It is no wonder that he has gotten to where he is having come from Little Rock, Arkansas—I noticed that when I lived there for six years that seemed to be gold courses everywhere.

Just seeing Jackson is something—he is very tall at 6 feet 5 inches and has broad shoulders and large hands and his ^{top 1}influence on golfers is legendary. Because he has been a caddy for so long, he knows a lot and is willing to share that in this DVD. This is, as Jackson says, not pro golf training and he is just a caddy who knows a lot about the game and how to improve it. His director here, Cathy Duran says that Jackson is a natural in front of the camera and she is very happy how this turned out.
