Reggae ruvvers – I mean lovers (had a Scooby moment) – can get revved up for revelry and rousing tunage. Here ... We ... GOOOOO ! Reggae greatest in human form (one of them, anyway) Pato Banton, lets loose with his singular style and hook-heavy tunes. Trickle in some mind-expanding lyrics and it's a win slash win situation all the way around, twice if you like. "Track listing" is just a neutral way of saying, "Holy shit, there's some seriously badass reggae rockin' on in this DVD; damn, I lost my mind it's so wonderful." Or something along those lines. But let's not forget this is a double dose, a two part documentary. The music is only part of the package, baby. We also penetrate the artistic trek of Banton as he shaped his sound and nurtured his talents. It's an enlightening DVD and a nice off the beaten path viewing experience.
