Midnight FM (MVD Visual)

Sometimes its the old hats that are comfy to wear. The well-worn yet not without sound reason psycho calls a DJ slash crazy controls character through insidious blackmail mash up is nothing new, if memory isn't slipping, to say nothing of the two genres either side of that slash on their own. In any case, these are fun plot structures with built in suspense, and no "Citizen Kane" aspirations abound in MIDNIGHT FM. This is a thriller whose geographical goal for the viewer is edge-of-the-seat. It's a rising-tension situation for a female DJ held hostage by a loony on the other end of the line who keeps her in line with the proverbial Sword of Damocles hanging over the heads of her family. Asian scary film fans take note.
