How to be a Sex Star \(MVD Visual\)

HOW TO BE A SEX STAR is not what you think it is. I'm not saying it's not sexy, sure, it's got some hotness, but this is no cheezeballz how to be sexy self help DVD designed to swipe your money and leave you not an nth sexier in your flailing intimate relationship(s). No, this is not a documentary – it's a mockumentary! And while some might say this has been done a lot (it hasn't reached same the point of shameless excess as has the parody film), you have to admit this is a unique application of the genre. Well, once I tell you what it's about, you'll be forced to make the admission. No, really, I have armed thugs at my beck and call. Funny man Nathan Hill is front and center – along with the quest to get laid. Instead of being about how to get laid, HOW TO BE A SEX STAR is a faux doc about a dude, played by Hill, who is a master of how to get laid – that is, the kind of guy who would put out the kind of DVD you probably thought this was until you read further. His woman-handling skills are put to the test as he balances five – count 'em, five! – relationships. And this is in addition to having to keep up appearances for reputation's sake. For Hill's character, this means trying to lay the most smokin' chick in the whole metro fuckin' area. HOW TO BE A SEX STAR is as much about the lengths men will go to to grab a piece of ass as it is about actually getting of ass. Funny and sexy is a good combination.
