ROUGH PICTURES

DISGRUNTLED EMPLOYEE: Director Bill Zebub, who can make a movie with less money that you would put in a vending machine, turns up the gonzo and turns down the humor in this quest to make the most fucked up movie ever. In the tradition of "Fat Guy Goes Nutso", a screwy janitor gets fired and goes on a rampage against all the bitches in his work place. The director says he makes movies for rejects to jerk off to and the sexual rampage that takes up the last hour fills that bill. Soft core gonzo for the off the wall minded.
