Bruce Lee: A Warrior's Journey/Pursuit of the Dragon

Following directly in the wake of Shout!Factory's Bruce Lee Blu-ray collection comes MVD's double feature presentation of "A Warrior's Journey" and "Pursuit of the Dragon," a pair of documentaries released several decades after his death by Lee specialist John Little. The highlight of the 97-minute "A Warrior's Journey" is 33 minutes of continuous action footage that was shot for "The Game of Death" but had been "lost." It also includes interviews (Kareem Abdul-Jabbar) and behind-the-scenes footage. Made in 2009, "In Pursuit of the Dragon" revisits locations used in Lee's four films — "The Big Boss," "Fist of Fury," "The Way of the Dragon" and "Enter the Dragon" — in Thailand, Hong Kong, Macau and Rome. As such, it's as much a travelogue as a documentary about Lee. — Gary Dretzka
