DUG PINNICK, frontman for the legendary KING'S X, is releasing his new solo album, Naked, on May 7th through RockArmy Records. Check out the album art below:

According to a press release, "Naked is deeply personal and overflowing with dUg's unmistakable tone, groove, and heart-wrenching vocals. PEARL JAM's Jeff Ament said that "heavy music didn't start in Seattle, it started in Katy, Texas with King's X" and Naked is proof that dUg Pinnick remains at the top of his game.

In November, Pinnick released the single 'What You Gonna Do?' and 'Courage', as a precursor to Naked.

dUg Pinnick's other endeavors include POUNDHOUND, SUPERSHINE, TRES MOUNTAINS (with Jeff Ament of PEARL JAM), an upcoming record with ERIC GALES and THOMAS PRIDGEN, and numerous solo projects and collaborations with artists that include GEORGE LYNCH, GILBY CLARKE, JOSE & THE WASTEMEN, and Robbi Robb of TRIBE AFTER TRIBE and THREE FISH.

RockArmy Records is owned and operated by Paul Soroski, who is known as the bassist in the band PODUNK (who have toured nationally with King's X and TESLA numerous times) and as a producer and engineer, with credits including ILL NINO, RECKLESS SONS, CINCO DOCE, and a Grammy-nominated Latin all-star project led by Randy Caballero.
