King's X frontman dUg Pinnick will release his new solo album, Naked, on May 7 via RockArmy Records. Check out the cover artwork below.

According to a press release, 'Naked' is deeply personal and overflowing with [Pinnick's] unmistakable tone, groove, and heart-wrenching vocals. Pearl Jam's Jeff Ament said that 'heavy music didn't start in Seattle, it started in Katy, Texas with King's X and 'Naked' is proof that Pinnick remains at the top of his game."

Pinnick in December released a special holiday-themed digital-only single via RockArmy Records and his own dUgtone imprint featuring the songs Holiday and Ho Ho Ho. This single came right on the heels of the release of the first single from Doug's upcoming solo album, Naked, to be issued via RockArmy Records in the first quarter of 2013, featuring the songs What You Gonna Do? and "Courage".

Naked will be Pinnick's sixth solo album, including two released under the moniker Poundhound. Pinnick wrote, performed, produced, and mixed the CD and the new single on his own in his home studio in Los Angeles. Holiday and Ho Ho Ho were mastered by engineer and RockArmy Records owner Paul Soroski, the bassist for Podunk, who have done numerous national tours alongside King's X, Tesla, and others. Soroski's studio credits include 2010's "Dead New World" by Ill Nino and 2009's Reflections by RAZR13, which features Pinnick on lead vocals.

Pinnick is best known as the vocalist/bassist for King's X, the influential hard rock act that also features guitarist Ty Tabor and drummer Jerry Gaskill. King's X celebrated 32 years of activity as a band in 2012 with a run of U.S. dates alongside Kansas. The band's most recent studio album, "XV", was released in 2008 and was their highest-charting album since 1996's Ear Candy. In 2005, VH1 included King's X in its list of "100 Greatest Artists In Hard Rock."
