The

Olympic committee wanted to eliminate wrestling from the Olympics, thankfully that didn't happen, but Olympic wrestling and professional wrestling are two different sports. Professional wrestling is more of an art form. Men and women perform athletic feats to bring entertainment. In the 70s and 80s the stars were larger than life. Now thanks to Jadat LLC new release the viewer can enjoy over 3 hours of classic wrestling matches.

This DVD features matches eight different wrestling promotions and featuring some of the biggest stars of the 70s and 80s. Some of the stars on this collections include, Terry Funk, Andre the Giant, Brusier Brody, Ric Rude, Junkyard Dog, Ivan Putski, Tully Blanchard, David Von Erich, Manny Fernandez, The Sheepherders, Jim Niedhart and that man who graces the cover of the DVD, Ivan Koloff. Unseen Things: Origins matches of all different kinds. title matches, bloody feuds.

Duane L. Martin's first novel in the Unseen Things series is now available through Amazon, Smashwords and other online retail sites.

All in all, this is still a good collection of matches from the heights of the wrestling that we will never see again. The only thing that could make these collections better would be to see a little of the backstory behind these matches! So if your a fan of old style wrestling of the 70's and 80's this one is for you. I highly recommend you head over to www.MVDb2b.com and pick this one up.
