One thing becomes apparent as you watch this film, the director is clearly aware of the joke of the film and is hamming it up in this one. One could look over a film being purposely bad with the original. After all, we weren't sure if the director was in on the joke of how bad it was or not. He clearly gets it with Birdedmic 2 and the results are something I think you might enjoy more if you are in your early teens. If we group films based on an educational class, this is a movie that would be in the slow class. Perhaps one could argue it being the smartest kid in the slow class, but the end result to that is the sad fact that it is still retarded.

Maybe I just miss the point a film like this makes? Maybe it is a movie I'd have liked much better if I were with a group of friends or drunk, perhaps both? It is just hard to ignore the Nintendo 64 level of graphics for the killer birds and giant jelly fish we see here. The movie tosses lots of junk at the wall in hopes that something sticks, but I'm not sure it ever does. The director clearly had no clue how to end this thing leaving the end results to be one of the worst endings I've ever seen. The bottom line is the movie is really really bad. If you want that more power to you, but if not run far far FAR away from this one.
