

SPLIT (DVD)
Candy Factory Films

Split tells the story of Inanna (Amy Ferguson), a young actress working as a stripper, who becomes obsessed with a mask-maker (Morgan Spector) and sacrifices parts of herself, piece by piece, in order to win his love. The film depicts a mythic journey that blurs theater performance, dreams, and real life, as Inanna connects with other women's experiences of trauma and repressed sexuality. This provocative and powerful confrontation frees Inanna, and she's able to claim her rage and rise to claim her own independence.

AMERICANA (DVD)
Candy Factory Films

Years after alcoholism drove Avery Wells (David Call) from his home and career, the San Francisco film editor finds himself back in the city, sobered up, and coerced into finishing a cut of a new film, Americana. He relents and takes the job due to his connection to the film's star — his sister, Kate (Kelli Garner) — and the convincing of the film's producer, Caleb Andrews (Jack Davenport). Soon he starts receiving menacing calls from a stranger threatening to reveal his darkest secrets — threats impossible to ignore when his sister is murdered. Avery's world is turned upside down and he falls off the wagon — and slowly his suspicion of conspiracy surrounding the release of Americana grows. Avery's self-abusive behavior continues and he dips deeper into paranoia, spurred on by his lawyer Ben (Peter Coyote) and brother-in-law Josh (Frank Mosley), only raising more questions.

Patrick Wilson and Jessica Biel star in this Hitchcockian noir. It's 1960 in Manhattan and Walter Stackhouse (Wilson) seems to have it all: status, money and a "happy" marriage. This brutal murder unlocks Walter's darkest fantasies — his desire to be free from his own wife, the beautiful but damaged Clara (Biel). When she is found dead in suspicious circumstances, both Walter and Kimmel's lives become dangerously intertwined, which ultimately catches the attention of Corby, a ruthless and ambitious detective. Convinced that Walter has become Kimmel's copycat killer, Corby begins to work tirelessly to nail both murderers. Before long, the three men begin to circle one another — who will live and who will die?

TITO JACKSON: JUST ANOTHER SPEND AND SPEND DEMOCRAT?

City Councilor Tito Jackson, who is running for mayor this year, has called to "fully fund" Boston Public Schools, restoring budget cuts and handing out free MBTA passes to all high school students. But analysts say it would not only cost millions, but also be pretty difficult to actually pull off given the city's increasing education budget.

Jackson's ideas would actually result in a $17-million increase in the mayors proposed $1-billion school budget. His supporters may think his ideas are good, but the price tag is always the bottom line, and his price tag can only mean higher taxes, which is what one always gets when the spend and spend politicians want to fix things.

TITO'S ALSO OFF-BASE ON EVANS, TOO!

City Councilor Tito Jackson recently went into campaign mode for his mayoral race by slamming Police Commissioner Billy Evans and thereby slamming Mayor Walsh. I think the present command of the Boston Police Department is in very good hands with Commissioner Evans and Supt.-in-Chief William Gross. During the Evans era, Boston has established a reputation for being one of the safest large cities in America.

SAY HELLO TO ZACH

like I did over at the Maverick Marketplace Cafe right here in Eastie.

HAPPY EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY TIME

Family members and friends of Willie E. Hicks, owner of Hicks Auto Body in Dorchester, wished him a happy birthday on March 21st. Willie's auto shop has been fixing cars at the corner of Talbot and Blue Hill Avenue for almost 50 years. His son Willie Jr. remarked, "It was a celebration of his life (and) was about all the people who have come into his life, socially, personally, business-wise who have given us the opportunity to really accept them as friends."

MOULTON LOOKING FAR TOO POLITICAL

U.S. Rep. Seth Moulton from the North Shore is looking far too political for his and the Bay State's own good. The state's entire congressional delegation has gone on record opposing a proposed MBTA commuter rail cutback; the letter sent to the MBTA was policy-focused. However, Moulton in his own statement, went right after Gov. Charlie Baker using the same Democratic Party talking points. Moulton has been a major disappointment to all the independents and Democrats who supported his election bid. He sounds like just another liberal Democrat spouting his high-charged partisan sound-biting for media feeds.
