HANKS CONTINUES EXCITING FRANCHISE THRILLER

ENJOY the great selection of DVDs and books we have to give away this week — five FREE copies of each. For a chance to win any of the valuable items in this issue, pick your top FOUR choices ONLY and mail the coupon to P.O. Box 3021. Do not enclose the coupon with a request for a list of winners. If possible, please use address label.

BEST-SELLING author Dan Brown teams up with Academy Award-winning director Ron Howard and Academy Award-winning actor Tom Hanks in “Inferno.” The latest installment in the billion-dollar franchise that began with “The Da Vinci Code” and “Angels & Demons” continues with Hanks’ character waking up in a hospital room with no memory of the past two days. He then finds himself the target of a manhunt — while solving the most intricate riddle he’s ever faced. The DVD is available for $30.99 from Sony Pictures Home Entertainment.

EMMY Award-winning actress Donna Mills stars as a woman trying to pick up the pieces of a broken past and create a promising future in “Life Gets in the Way.” The $24.95 DVD from MVD Entertainment Group is a heartwarming look at a woman trying to find Mr. Right in the big city after being wronged.

THE true story of the hunt for Nazi lieutenant colonel Adolf Eichmann is captured in “The People vs. Fritz Bauer.” The $25.99 DVD from Cohen Media Group focuses on Attorney General Fritz Bauer, who contacted the Israeli secret service Mossad when he received evidence of Eichmann’s whereabouts. It’s a riveting and dramatic story of a man trying to expose the crimes of the Nazis.

THE classic Peanuts comic strip comes to life on “Peanuts by Schulz: Snoopy Tales” from Warner Bros. Home Entertainment. The all-new animated collection includes 32 shorts based on the iconic comic strip created by Charles Schulz. The $18.94 DVD features the adventures of Charlie Brown and his loveable beagle, Snoopy, along with the rest of the Peanuts gang, and will be enjoyed by the whole family.

THE spellbinding novel “A Great Reckoning,” by Louise Penny, is a puzzle of police corruption, second chances and loss. The Chief Inspector Armand Gamache novel explores the murder of a professor at a police academy where he enlists the assistance of four cadets and uncovers corruption. It is published by Minotaur Books for $28.99.
