

PAT TRAVERS/Boom Boom Out Go The Lights (MVD Audio) I have always had a special place in my heart for this man has his live album, 'Go For What You Know' is one of the greatest live albums ever. I also like a few others and when I got this I popped it right in and was smiling from note one to the last guitar lick. Pat redoes some of his classics including the album title and "Snortin Wiskey" and "Crash and Burn". There is also a bunch of covers does that he does and in his own way and some surprised me as he tackles songs by Aerosmith, "Last Child" and "Lights Out" by UFO. There are 13 songs total and not a bad one in the bunch and Pat sounds good as ever on vocals and on guitar his fingerwork is beyond godly and makes these cover tunes shine with his own blend of Travers music. A must have for any fan of the man or rock n roll. Info:

www.mvdb2b.com