CD Review - Peter Pan Speedrock

Spread Eagle

Prophase/MVD

PPSR can bring your neck to a snapping halt with a punk driven hybrid of old Dictators with a snarling AC/DC punch. Hailing from the Netherlands the album was produced by Tom Skogsberg and with that, the band bleeds and breathes late 80's sleaze rock. Pleasant assortments of riffs that bring to mind Salty Dog, Sea Hags, or even the short-lived MCA act Spread Eagle (the American band that is).

Is this a tribute to them or a punk-up version of the first Dangerous Toys album?. Either way the message is delivered with short and sweet trsacks to the point and with conviction ala The Bronx.
Worth the time and effort.
