

general consumption.

Peter Pan Speedrock - Spread Eagle

Jessica - Hard rock Dutch style... Blistering guitar lines and throttling drums underscore melodic screaming vocals. Mean.
Lindsey - Nasty, heavy, thick & fast. Testament. Prong. Motorhead.
Christina - Yep.
Brittany - The name alone is worth five stars. Music isn't as good as the name, but almost.

The Pines - Sparrows In The Bell

Jessica - Fucking brilliant dark country-folk... Iron & Wine on laudanum, with a wicked bit of twang. Remarkable.
Lindsey - Slow, depressing folk the way it should be. 16 Horsepower, Leonard Cohen. Classic.
Christina - Play this in the trees and it will be so much easier to pick off woodland animals.
Brittany - Indie folk at its finest. These kids could go big, mark my words.

Lou Rhodes - Beloved One

Jessica - Amazingly complex, personal record from former Lamb frontwoman. All acoustic guitars and pretty melodies. Beautiful.
Lindsey - Thoughtful warble-folk with nice low end from cello & double bass. Emmylou meets Rasputina.
Christina - Tribal, if your tribe is Tori Amos.
Brittany - Not bad for a hippie! I actually kind of like it.

Silver Sun - Dad's Weird Dream

Jessica - Brilliant edgy power pop from the UK... awesome
