Quiet Riot Drummer Does Led Zeppelin

by Paul Cashmere - July 26 2007

Frankie Banali, drummer for Quiet Riot, has brought together an all-star cast to pay tribute to Led Zeppelin.

'24/7/365 The Tribute To Led Zeppelin' features vocals Deep Purple's Glenn Hughes, Toto's Bobby Kimball, Robin McCauley from Michael Schenker Group and Jeff Scott Soto, most recently of Journey.

Handling guitar duties are Gilbey Clarke from Guns 'n Roses, Bruce Kulick of Kiss and Whitesnake's Doug Aldrich.

"The album is dedicated with love and respect to the memory of John Henry Bonham - May 31, 1948 / September 25, 1980, and it has truly been a labor of love," Banali said in a statement.

The album also includes the new '(They Were) The Eye of God', written by Banali as a tribute to Led Zep.

The tracklisting is:

- The Wanton Song
- Four Sticks
- Kashmir
- Out On The Tiles
- Ramble On
- The Ocean
- The Immigrant Song
- Royal Orleans
- Gallows Pole
- Custard Pie
- When The Levee Breaks
- (They Were) The Eye of God.

The album will be released on September 18 through RSM Records.
