Quick Hits & Clips: Even More Vast, Saving Abel, Kinky, Norma Jean, Yahowa 13

- Italians Even More Vast have set the release date of their upcoming full-length, "Would You Believe?," for November 25th by US label Renaissance Records.
- MTV2 have premiered the video for "18 Days," the new single from Saving Abel. The clip was directed by Travis Kopach (Panic At The Disco, Black Tide) and features the band performing on the USS Hornet. The San Francisco based naval carrier won 9 battle stars for her service in WWII. Saving Abel will be out on tour supporting Buckcherry and Avenged Sevenfold starting on November 4th. Check out the band's MySpace profile page for all of the dates.
- Mexican rockers Kinky collaborated with director Emiliano Lopez to release their newest music video "Hasta Quemarnos." The band's new album "Barracuda" is out now as a digital release with physical release set for February 24th. Check out Kinky's "Hasta Quemarnos" on YouTube.
- DiNG has teamed up with Atlanta rockers Norma Jean and is offering the mother of all contests for fans! Norma Jean is currently on a headline US tour with Haste The Day, The Showdown, Mychildren Mybride, and Oh Sleeper. One winner will be chosen from each tour date to receive an exclusive opportunity to stand on the side of the stage and watch Norma Jean. Also up for grabs: an Xbox 360, giftcards and more. Head over to enter the contest.
- To be released by MVD Audio on November 11, Yahowa 13's "Sonic Portation." Back in the early '70s a curious group owned and operated a health food restaurant in Los Angles. The Source Family was a religious group of young people centered around the father figure of Father Yod, a WWII flying ace and spiritual searcher. This group of young people also performed improvisational music backing Father Yod under the name Yahowa 13. When Father Yod died in a hang gliding accident in 1975, the group dispersed. In 2007, with the publishing of a book about the Source Family, the original Yahowa 13 reunited for some shows and did some studio recordings. These are the long awaited results, the first studio recordings in over 30 years by Yahowa 13! Original members Djin, Octavius and Sunflower jam out like the ensuing years never happened. Incredible improv pieces with mind melting guitar and the psychedelic low end throb that all Yod fans will immediately recognize.
