

Patten, Tom Towles and Angel's Amy Acker.

❑ HORRORS OF THE BLACK MUSEUM (VCI, 1959): Like your binoculars spiked? Check out this classic Michael Gough-starrer, on DVD with commentary by and a tribute to producer Herman Cohen, composer commentary, photos and more.

❑ JACK THE RIPPER (IMAGE, 1976): Jess Franco's take on the Whitechapel legend, with Klaus Kinski in the title role, on DVD uncut with commentary by producer Erwin C. Dietrich, a deleted scene and two featurettes.

❑ JESUS CHRIST: VAMPIRE HUNTER (ELECTRIC/MUSIC VIDEO, 2002): He teams with a Mexican wrestler to fight evil. Oh yeah, and it's a musical. What more do you need? The DVD has filmmaker commentary, interviews, outtakes and other extras.

❑ KILLER RATS (VELOCITY, 2003): Rodents rampage through a hospital for the rich, addicted and/or insane in the latest (and probably last) of Nu Image's nature-amok series. Directed by Tibor (The Gate) Takacs, starring Ron Perlman.

❑ MANIACAL (CINEMA-CABRE, 2003): Director/FXer Joe Castro's latest follows the bloody trail of nuthouse escapee Gilbert Gill. The DVD comes with behind-the-scenes footage, interviews, etc.

❑ MUMMY'S KISS (SEDUCTION CINEMA/E.I., 2003): An ancient Egyptian princess is reborn in modern LA and terrorizes Richard Lynch et al. The DVD has commentary by director Don Glut, bloopers and a making-of featurette.

❑ MURDER BY DECREE (ANCHOR BAY, 1979): Sherlock Holmes (Christopher Plummer) vs. Jack the Ripper via Bob Clark comes to DVD with Clark commentary, still galleries and a color booklet.

❑ THE OTHER HELL (SHRIEK SHOW/MEDIA BLASTERS, 1980): Nunzadroppin', and a priest investigates the convent carnage in a Bruno Mattei film once released to Cannibalistic's Don Wood hates getting blood in his eyes.

U.S. theaters as Guardian of Hell, now restored on DVD with talent interviews.

❑ PIÑATA: SURVIVAL ISLAND (FIRST LOOK, 2003): Buffy's Nicholas Brendon and hottie Jaime Pressly take a swing at a Mexican legend come to evil life. The DVD has commentary by directors David and Scott Hillenbrand and a trivia game.
