BILLY GIL

After Wu-Tang Clan rapper and solo artist Method Man has his first live DVD released Oct. 30, MVD Visual will release Method Man: Live From the Sunset Strip Dec. 11 (prebook Nov. 6) on HD DVD.

Both the $16.95 DVD and $19.95 HD DVD will include the tracks "Intro (Album 4:21)," "Method Man," "Bring the Pain," "Ice Cream," "All I Need," "Grid Iron Rap," "How High," "What the Blood Clot," "Suspect Chin Music," "Fall Out," "Ya'meen," "Is It Me," "Problem," "Say," "Wu-Tang Clan Ain't Nothin' ta F' With," "Triumph," "Shimmy Shimmy Ya (Tribute to ODB)," "Brooklyn Zoo," "Judgment Day" and "Da Rockwilder."

Both versions include an extended interview with Method Man and another with Brother J of Clan X, behind-the-scenes footage and a photo gallery.

Method Man is just the latest musician to hit high-definition disc. According to The DVD Release Report, the music genre has 19 Blu-ray Discs and 22 HD DVDs (counting opera and stage, without which there are 20 music HD DVDs) in the market.
