American Speedway - Ship of Fools (Release Year - 2008)

If Lemmy Kilmeister from Motorhead sang for AC/DC, it would have to sound some like Philadelphia's, American Speedway.

Singer Michael Thursby Speedway has the same style of hard edged course vocals as Lemmy. The one difference I have found on this rocking set of tunes, is that punk vibe that they give off. American Speedway seems to have one foot in hard rock, and the other in the punk world. Either way, it seems to work for them.

Speedway's coarse voice may not be for everyone, but if you like Motorhead, chances are you will probably like American Speedway as well. Ship of Fools is a short set (less than 30 minutes in length) of high energy, bar room rock. It isn't original, but it definitely rocks. This is the kind of music, that no matter how hard you resist you will find yourself tapping your foot, and ready to crack open a cold one.

You can check some of American Speedway's tunes at their myspace page here. For you Vinyl fans, if you act quick enough, you can get a copy of Ship of Fools on LP, that comes with a copy of the CD at the same price. Get it now from SeeofSound.com!

One Response to "American Speedway - Ship of Fools (Release Year - 2008)"

1. Never liked Lemmy's vocals....
Feel the same about this singer...
But the tunes do have possibilities, if only Brian Johnson sang them...

LOL....that ought to bring out some comments!
