D.O.A - Smash the State - The Raw Original D.O.A. 1978 - 81

Canada's third (beer and ice hockey being numbers one and two) greatest export captured in all their raw, early glory...

Back in 1992, I spent an insane month in Canada, mostly drunk, hanging out with strippers and getting my arse to as many shows as I could possibly get to, and if it wasn't for D.O.A., I'd probably never have made the trip. To me, D.O.A. were, are and always will be one of the greatest punk rock bands, period. They coined the phrase 'Hardcore', and were only equalled in their work ethic by the mighty Black Flag. D.O.A. are a colossus and had such an incredible impact on my life, that I just had to see what kind of insane place could produce a band like D.O.A., and in 1992 I found out. D.O.A. could only have come out of Canada, and only Canada could have produced D.O.A. The whole damn country is insane, and D.O.A. are even crazier...

Anyways, on to the DVD - it's a collection of raw as hell live footage from shows the band played in Canada and San Francisco between 1978 and 1981, and it's fucking fantastic. The sound quality of great throughout (and a lot of D.O.A. classics are served up - 'D.O.A.', 'The Enemy', 'Fucked Up baby' and a whole load more), and the band as ever are on top form at each and every show. Hell, you cannot go wrong with this release, a bloody great DVD from a bloody great band... Sometimes life really is kinda cool...

The Clash, The Dead Kennedys, Black Flag, The Circle Jerks, The Dead Boys.
