

MUSIC

on any given track or at any live show. Guitars, drums, horns, strings, tap dancers, and typewriters abound. Leader Tim Delaughter's compositions are traditional rock chord progressions with storybook songwriting themes that often touch on struggle and hope. As a bonus, a DVD is included with the CD that chronicles the enormous endeavor of making the elaborate album.—Mike Fish

YOU'RE GONNA MISS ME
Original Soundtrack
by Roky Erickson
Palm Pictures

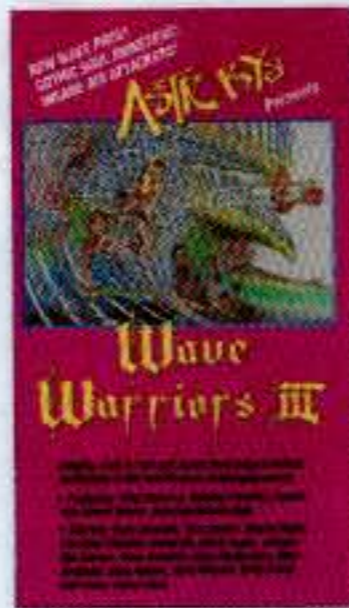

One of my all-time, top five moments in John Cusack movie history: when the Roky Erickson song "You're Gonna Miss Me" blasts in High Fidelity, after (one of) Rob's girlfriends breaks up with him. It completely captures the outrage and heartbreak of the situation, while appealing to a guy's machismo at the same time. The rest of Roky Erickson's work, as showcased on the new soundtrack release You're Gonna Miss Me, is just as enthralling and seriously diverse. Quiet and earnest folk ballads sit seamlessly alongside rowdy manifestos. A pioneer in the psychedelic musical revolution in the 60s, Roky's young career was cut short by several tragic twists of drug abuse and mental health issues, but he's just starting to come back on the scene again now. You're Gonna Miss Me is a must-have for every serious audiophile's collection. Just ask Rob from High Fidelity.—M.F.

A.R.E. WEAPONS
Modern Mayhem Defend

This New York indie-thrash-hipster-party-ripping-rock band is an addition to your summer soundtrack that must be made. It's just fun music that makes you want to party and have fun. More normal than !!! and way more hyper than The Strokes—these guys put it on! The second song on this album is called "Weird Wild Free" and will no doubt appear in Tomorrow Today—TransWorld SURF's upcoming film—so that right there tells you how rad this band is. Go get it now so you don't have to line up on the bandwagon when this band takes off and leaves you in hipster dust.—C.C.

DVDS

WAVE WARRIORS 3
Astroboys/Herbie Fletcher

When I was a grom, Wave Warriors movies fueled my stoke. No matter how cliché and corny that first sentence was, it's true, and especially true about Wave Warriors 3, which is now available for the first time ever on DVD. Featuring the Astroboys, who are basically the Astrodeck team, and at the time, the heaviest crew of shredders around. Kong, The Ho bros, Christian Fletcher, Archy, Pottz, Johnny Boy, Dane Kealoha, and many more. The music and vibe of this flick will take you back to a glittering era of 80s glam meets hardcore shred—and an early look at the literal takeoff of air surfing—get this DVD now!—C.C.

ECHO AND THE BUNNYMEN
Dancing Horses
MVD

I'm super into concert DVDs right now. Live concert DVDs are great to put on when you have guests over, when you're doing chores, or when you just want to chill and listen to music while zoning out staring at the boob tube. This live Echo And The Bunnymen DVD is a must-have for any fan of the legendary Brit rock stalwarts. Ian McCulloch's voice is perfect and effortless and the band is as tight as ever. The set holds hits like "The Cutter," "Bring On The Dancing Horses," and of course, my personal favorite, "The Killing Moon."—C.C.

FREEDOM RIDERS
Surfalot Productions

I'm a fan of underground do-it-yourself flicks—you know that I know that we all know that. So in my opinion, Freedom Riders is a winner. This lo-fi little ditty features bros and pros shredding locales all over the world. There is a lot of contest footage and some questionable music (except the San Diego rap song in the San Diego section that is amazing), but overall, this is a watchable flick that will get you psyched.—C.C.

LET'S DO THIS!
TransWorld
SKATEboarding
Jon Holland and Jason Hernandez

Why are you reading a skate video review in a surf magazine? Well, because if you're like the rest of us, you love skateboarding and you want to hear about the best new skate flicks out—that being Let's Do This! I know you may think we're biased because we are sisters with the skate mag, but the truth is, this is a beautifully shot, action-packed banger of a film. Featuring Clint Peterson, Brian Brown, the return of Peter Smolik, Divine Calloway, and my personal new favorite, tech-gnar-maestro Emmanuel Guzman—go to skateboarding.com right now and buy Let's Do This!—or else.—C.C.

BOBBY MARTINEZ MIXED TAPE
Reef/Pete Santa Maria

Bobby Martinez has one of the sickest backhands on Earth—you will see that when you watch Mixed Tape. This flick, directed by the legendary Pete Santa Maria, is an instant classic. From Bobby's wee-lad years at Rincon to his amazing explosion onto the World Tour, Mixed Tape covers every angle of Bobby's rise, and his bros and tour mates are included for your enjoyment (Irons bros, Hobgood bros, Rob Machado, and the rest of the Reef bros). Overall, this is an amping, heartfelt, interesting, and very well done video—highly recommended!—C.C.

DRIVE THRU CARIBBEAN
14-Day Productions

Drive Thru's rule! This time, the crew went irie and found themselves in Jamaica, Barbados, and Puerto Rico. The Jamaica part is hilarious, and they actually scored insane waves! You probably saw the big huge article we did on it two months ago, so I don't have to tell you how hard these guys were ripping. If you've already seen the Drive Thru Caribbean shows on Fuel, and you think you've seen it all—get the DVD, there's only so much you can show on TV. The DVD is where it's at! Check it out or Donavon is gonna come to your house and make it smell like patchouli.—C.C.
