'Live at CBGBs August 19, 2002: The Bowery Collection'

Hardcore splendour from one of NYHC's finest operators

Like all Noo Yoyk bands of the punk persuasion, top notch hardcore heads H2O undoubtedly played the legendary (and now sadly defunct) CBGBs club on various occasions. Now, as part of the Bowery Collection which is releasing live CBGB's sets from various notables in aid of music charity the Hilly Kristal Foundation, H2O are joining the likes of The Toasters, The Queers, Terror, The Mooney Suzuki and many more in doing their bit for the cause.

The night in question saw the chaps in fine form, raucously rocking the house with an ample selection of slamalong classics like "F.T.T.W.", "Thicker Than Water" and "Spirit of '84". The sound recording is pretty good, and the energy levels are kept sufficiently high to induce sweating just listening to the CD...

If quality NYHC is your thing, and you're fond of hearing it live, sweaty and played with conviction and passion, get this disc. Not only does it fulfil all the above criteria, but you'll be doing your bit for charitee too - it's a win-win situation whichever way you look at it.
