DVD Review - Jetboy

The Glam Years

MVD

We have a CD/DVD combo here with a few rarities but more important the poorly orchestrated interview footage that does enable old school closet queens to understand more as to why Jetboy never really made it. Sporting his trademark Mohawk hair, vocalist Mickey Finn is still the only off kilter glam rocker from the 80's heyday of sleaze/glam debauchery that is still viable. A performance filmed at the infamous Whiskey-A-Go Go from 1986, is the integral part of this title.

Fans of Love/Hate, L.A. Guns, Tuff, Swingin' Thing, etc.. will find this appealing, maybe even some shit-kicker crossover stuff like Dangerous Toys, Law & Order or even Warrior Soul. The Hanoi Rocks influence also seeps in on classics like "Don't Mess with My Hair." Its too bad MCA fucked up the Jetboy legacy within one release. Maybe MVD can help keep the name and vibe from that era alive. In any event if you're over 34 and remember this kind of flake, then roll up a bill and have a sniff of some classic old school sleaze metal.
