Their Bassit was a good friend of AXL ROSE. He died from an overdose in 87 or 88.

Talk about your "blast from the past." I remember when they came out of LA...total rip off sound of AC/DC but with a glam look! Wasn't good, wasn't original and was late to the party!

I guess those in Oklahoma must need some "new music." haha

NOW YOU KNOW!!!

Love Jetboy..

However in my opinion not having Stomp It (down to the bricks) included is a mistake. I friggen love that song.

Brings to mind that song by the "basketball diaries" guy; "These are the friends that have died...died!"
