

I've said it before and I'll say it again...the new Potato Famine records from Salem Ashtray is da schnizzle, rizzle. Oops, it's 2008. It's, um, yeah, better than American Idol and hotter than the chicks in "Rock Of Love". Even "Rock Of Love 2". Also, again, check out The BloodRunners on MySpace. Very Dead Boys. Speaking of, I just got the full dvd from MVD with their live set at the Ritz in 1986. Great one camera shoot. It's great to see my pal Jeff rocking out, and my buddy Cheetah being the rock god he is. And Stiv? The hair had to go! Oi Vey! Also, what's very cool is there is an interview from "Good Morning Youngstown" with Stiv on the dvd plus the video for Sonic Reducer I used to see at The Ritz all the time in 1980 and 1981. I watched it closely and there is no Cheetah. I guess this was made when that Frank guy joined the band who is also on "Good Morning Youngstown" with Stiv. The great thing about this is Stiv talks about Punk Rock and what it really is, and NO ONE has ever said it better. Check it out to see what I'm talking about! Down in Flames, baby!
