I'll admit that I became familiar with the Dead Boys via AXL Rose & Eddie Vedder...those 2 guys brought the Dead Boys into the rock arena & watching this dvd, the band kicked some serious ass & Stiv Bator's was an amazing singer, although he seemed kinda messed up at times during this performance! Joey Ramone intro's the band onstage & the band tears it up for over an hour & they even play "Sonic Reducer" 2 times, as well as a cover of "Search & Destroy" by Iggy & the Stooges! The Dead Boys, musically, were a mix of punk & metal, & this dvd is a living testament to the power & passion the band had for their music, & it's sad that we'll never get a reunion of the band since Stiv is no longer with us, BUT, watching this dvd, you can see & feel how powerful the Dead Boys were, & all I can say is, the band was lean, hungry, & ready to rock on this particular night, so the performance on here is strong & intense!
