DVD Review - Bikini Bloodbath

Directed by John Gorman & Thomas Edward Seymour

MVD Video

Remember the early days of “Slasher Cinema” (circa the 70’s) and how the inclusion of tits and ass were prerequisites for effective plot development? Remember how teenagers from that era were so preoccupied with “getting it on” that the killer could walk right up and determine the type of shampoo their victims used before <insert graphic death scenario here>? Well stop your grinnin’ and drop your linen because directors John Gorman & Thomas Edward Seymour are bringing those days back!

With tongue firmly in cheek (as opposed to fingers shoved firmly down throat), John and Thomas have made one of the funnier entries in the hallowed halls of horror histrionics with this little beauty. Ok, check it out... seven busty high school babes have a slumber party to celebrate... well... being busty high school babes, why else? (Oh... and going off to college too I guess). Meanwhile across town, the deranged chef of the Sausage Party Restaurant celebrates a successful soufflé (no, not really) by going on a killing spree (yes, that last part’s true). Can the lesbian gym teacher rescue our bikini-clad babes before its too late or will the sexually confused football players (identifiable only by the words FOOTBALL PLAYER written across their shirts) save the day? Of course mayhem ensues and you are left guessing who will live and who will die. Yeah... riiiiight. If you don’t see these boneheads’ deaths coming a mile away may I suggest you watch something a little more your speed like “Old Yeller” or something.

“Bikini Bloodbath” works best as a comedy, poking fun at itself and the entire horror genre with much success. Vancouver’s own horror veteran Debbie Rochon, (“Scream Queen of the Decade” award winner and “B-Movie Hall of Fame” inductee) makes a hilarious appearance as the lesbian gym teacher Miss Johnson, while the rest of the cast (mostly unknowns) makes this film far more than the sum of its body parts.

For pure horror/comedy enjoyment you can’t get much better than “Bikini Bloodbath.” (Prerequisite 70’s style T&A free with every viewing).
