

| | | | | | |
|--|---|-------------------------|-----------------------|----------------------------|--|
| Home | Forum | Gallery | Links | Contact Us | <input type="text" value="search..."/> |
| | | | | | NEWSFLASH Looking for information? Search for what you are looking for and make it easier to browse the articles on this site. |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Home News Content Reference Interviews Reviews Fiction Forum Chat Gallery Documents Ask the Whip Fun Stuff Classified Ads Links FAQs Visitor Map Contact Us | ADVERTISEMENT   Home • Reviews • Videos • Richard Kern- Extra Action  | | | | Powered by  |
|  | | | | | |
| PDF PRINT EMAIL | | | | | |
| Richard Kern- Extra Action Sunday, 09 March 2008 | | | | | |
| Photographer Richard Kern brings out the video camera for some clothes-dropping exhibitionists. An erotic, unscripted view of women at play. Richard Kern uses basic camera techniques to film short clips of a vast selection of women in a comfortable setting. Very candid and always teasing, beautiful women at play alone, together or with a toy. Kern captures their moments of playfulness and sensuality while never going beyond what the viewer wants to see. | | | | | |
| Perhaps the most artistic and thought provoking piece of this DVD is the short featurette titled "Goodbye 42nd Street". Very light on the sexuality, however very strong on imagery. | | | | | |
| Using an original score by Thurston Moore of Sonic Youth, the entire DVD flows without interruption and never leaves you thinking about the music not fitting with the imagery. | | | | | |
| Find out more about this work and others here Richard Kern Online. | | | | | |
|  < Prev Next >  | | | | | |
| [Back] | | | | | |