Urban Legends \(Or Are They\)

Urban Legends is a pseudo documentary of 7 so-called urban legends. The quality of the film is poor and looks like it was transferred from VHS to DVD. This thing had to be shot back in the 80's, because that's how old some of the footage looks. The weird thing is, is that there is this weird host guy introducing each story and unfortunately, he is full of terrible one liners. It reminds me of Mystery Science Theater, because the guy makes comments throughout each story, which is annoying. The stories themselves are cheesy, but they are gruesome and somewhat entertaining. The special effects are poor as well (This is an 80's film), but they do lend to a good gross out on occasion.

Urban Legends has to be the weirdest, oddest movie I've ever tried to watch. During the midst of the film, there are several moments to when the film cuts into a variety show, from back in the day, featuring the Unknown Comic. Not sure how that got in there, or the inclusion of some porn. Again, this is probably the strangest thing I've ever tried to watch. It might have worked as a horror film, had they ditched the host and stuck to the stories. It didn't help that I was sober for this one either.

Bottom Line: An attempt at being a cult classic/midnight movie, but lacking the substance and continuity to achieve it.

Ragman still doesn't quite know what he just saw. He may be scarred for life.
