

THE ALKAHOLIKS/Live From Rehab (MVD)

The Liks are one of the L.A. rap troupes to break after Dr. Dre, Snoop, Eazy-E broke the West Coast scene wide open. They then broke up after three LPs in three years. That's when the fans realized what a truly great crew they were. Now it's a dozen years later. Here they are, and as potent as ever.

As this DVD proves, the 'Liks were/are a tight unit. Their rhymes and beats are on the money, they flow from one rap to the next with the ease of solid pros. They are also a lot of fun in an old school kind of way. No show biz, just straight up delivering. So BET fans can skip this one, not a single ho on the set to distract you from the verse.

Nice to see them back. Hope they stick around for a little longer than the last turn.
