Jadakiss: Kiss of Death Tour 2005 (MVD Visual, 2 DVDs, NR, 3 hours 20 min.). A third rap concert DVD captures a 24-song performance June 19, 2005 in Kentish Town Forum in London (the concert is about 62 minutes long). The song list features highlights and hit from his recent solo work, as well as earlier recordings with The Lox and The Ruff Ryders. Hits include "Time's Up," "Knock Yourself Out," "U Make Me Wanna," "We Gonna Make It" (his instant underground classic about street mayhem), "Put Ya Hands Up" and "Why." The latter caused an uproar when it linked George Bush with a 9/11 conspiracy, causing it to be banned and censored by U.S. radio stations. The concert DVD includes an interview. Disc two contains a 109-minute movie on the whole Kiss of Death tour, plus bonus concert footage from June 2005 in Germany. Grade: B
