DVD Review: Changes by Buddy Miles

Buddy Miles is probably best known for his association with Jimi Hendrix, he played on Electric Ladyland. This DVD is in part a tribute to Hendrix, Buddy gives us his versions of 'Purple Haze', 'Voodoo Child' and 'Hey Joe'. While they may not be quite the same as the original article, they are never the less quite interesting.

This DVD features two concerts by Buddy Miles and company. In the first, filmed at Switzerland's New Morning Rock Heroes Festival in 1995, he re-works in his own distinctive style a selection of rock and pop classics from the Sixties and Seventies.

The second, filmed in Paris a year later, features Albert King's blues standard 'Born Under A Bad Sign' and a deeply soulful interpretation of The Impressions' ballad hit 'For Your Precious Love'.

In North America we tend to forget about our European cousins and their contribution to the encyclopedia of music. New Morning, is Paris based, and is without question one of the finest music clubs in Europe. Their contribution to the Jazz, Blues, and Rock world can not be measured.

Buddy was a truly awesome performer and more importantly a great human being. His passion for music and the love of his fans truly were the focus of his life. They broke the mold with Buddy and with his untimely departure we see the continued demise of the once great and creative American music industry into an assembly line hum-drum beige only corporate business focused only on what makes money in the short term. No more thoughtful soulful creative expressions from developing artist, just more quick cookie-cutter copy-cat & over produced material to make money.

How sad that we are losing the last bastion of true social commentary in music. Performers like Buddy were the real deal and they will forever hold a place in music history as a Legendary musical talents.

Hot Topics, In-Depth:

While BloggerNews.net is known to provide up to the minute information on a wide variety of topics, at times a more in-depth analysis of a topic that is being written about by our writers is warranted. This section of BNN provides just that – an area of the site that looks deeper into a topic, delves into the actual facts behind it, and provides more than just a summary overview of what is happening right here and now.

From something as mundane as an overview of how credit scores work, to life and death topics such as mesothelioma, we are committed to creating a growing library of information for our readers. Click below to review the topics covered so far, and check back soon as new ones are to be added regularly!

Featured Blogger, July/August:

BloggerNews.net would like to thank and congratulate our Blogger of the Month for the month of June 2008 – Kevin Tipple for his outstanding contributions to BloggerNews.net, including nothing but a fantastic number of great book reviews!

Kevin is a contributor to Blogger News from the great state of Texas, and writes on a variety of subjects - as long as they have to do with books, and nothing else... Which, apparently, sometimes even talk to him (Yes - the books). Turns out he is a very good book reviewer, however, so this doesn't seem to have worked out too badly for him.
