

MARILLION Somewhere In London DVD (Mvd Visual) by Chris Forbes

This is a double DVD that was filmed over 2 nights in 2007 when the band played over there in London, England. I am by no means a fan of this band. I do respect the fact that they do have a very loyal fan base and I do think they are not bad for what they do, I just find their music quite boring. The 1st disc is the bands 1st night concert and disc 2 is some extra songs (I assume they changed the set list from day 1 to day 2). The video itself is well put together and I watched some of it and the crowd was big time into the band and the band seemed to really feed off the crowd and are very intense in their playing. This is either a band you love or hate and if you are a fan of the band, you'll want this as it clocks in at over 220 minutes so this will keep you satisfied for quite some time. Info:
