MARILLION
Somewhere In London DVD
Track Listing:

Rating: 6 stars!

Filmed on June 15 & 15 of 2007, the new Marillion dvd, "Somewhere In London" captures the band still pumping out classic rock riffs with loads of energy & passion on this 2 dvd set. The first disc is the entire concert as the band wanted it, then the 2nd disc is the songs they performed that didn't make the disc, & "Most Toys" is one of the rarer gems that I loved! The Racket Club Rehearsal footage was also pretty cool & the alternate mixes were sweet too! The audio & video on this dvd set are great too...sometimes concert video's don't quite capture the band & all their glory, but this set combines the energy of their live show with the evolution of technology..what I mean is, you can watch this dvd & it's clear, crisp, the band sounds amazing & it's a great video to watch! "The Wound" is a great track in the middle of their set that's very memorable, & it's interesting that Marillion never really broke ground over here in the USA, BUT, overseas, they are legends!
