Tesco Vee is one weird, wild & crazy M.F., & this new dvd featuring the man & his band, The Meat Men, showcases a weird sense of humor, wacky antics, & there's many, many, many vintage concert clips from the band, there's current presidential humor involving Hilary & Obama, & honestly, I live in Maryland & have spent my entire life in the Baltimore area, so it was interesting to watch all the footage they filmed here in my home state, & local freak, John Water's is featured in this dvd as well as the notorious Baltimore block, many seedy area's & I'll stress one HUGE point here..there's ALOT of male nudity in this dvd, so don't say I didn't warn you! Perhaps the funnier moments are seeing a penis forced into the mouth of Bret Michaels from Poison, & there's a few gay moments with David Lee Roth from Van Halen & Glenn Danzig as well too...it's NOT done in good fun either, so don't say I didn't warn you that it's VERY mean, very dirty, & very gay! I'd describe this dvd as trash cinema, I like it, it's got a little too much penis for my personal taste, but the offbeat, weird, comedy moments are what make this dvd interesting in a trashy sorta way.
