The Beatles - Magical Mystery Tour Memories DVD

Here is another Beatles related DVD slated for release on September 2, 2008. The Magical Mystery Tour album just might be my favorite Beatles album, and the movie is quite good as well. Unfortunately the movie received a poor reception for a number of reasons, the main reason being because when it debuted on television it was played in black and white and this is a movie that demands color because of all the psychedelia.

The Beatles - Magical Mystery Tour Memories is an upbeat rockumentary featuring the vivid memories of those who witnessed the making of the cult Beatle movie, The Magical Mystery Tour, in 1967 and features a celebrity cast along with anecdotal stories and unseen 8mm home movie footage, as well as eye-witness accounts from fans, on-lookers and the cast of the movie. Featuring Dame Peggy Spencer (choreographer), Neil Innis (Bonzo Dog Do Da Band), Tony Barrow (Beatles press officer and close friend of Sir Paul McCartney), Keith McCartney (Paul McCartney's brother), Frieda Kelly (principle secretary to the Beatles Fan Club),

Bonus Materials:
