

NATIONAL EXAMINER GIVEAWAY

Feel good and win a DVD

WE'VE got some great DVDs for you this week — five copies of each to give away FREE. Plus if you want to get organized, we've got a book to get you started. For a chance to win, see the coupon below.

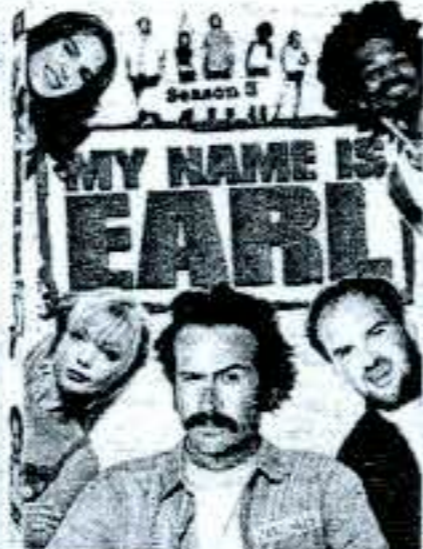

GOOD-bye classroom, hello summer. Troy and Gabriella are back in High School Musical 2: Deluxe Dance Edition from Walt Disney. This high-energy $29.98 DVD brims with songs, dance numbers and more. And there's plenty of bonus material as well to keep you entertained for hours.

IT'S easy to say "get over it," but it's oh, so hard to do as Peter finds out when he's dumped by his girlfriend in Forgetting Sarah Marshall.

Jason Segel stars as the sad sack who has another chance at love in this romantic comedy. It's $29.98 from Universal.

GET ready for more dim-witted fun in My Name Is Earl: Season Three. This Emmy Award-winning show stars Jason Lee as a loser who strikes it rich and tries to make things right. This $49.98 set from Fox co-stars Jaime Pressly.

HELEN Hunt and Bette Midler team up in the romantic comedy Then She Found Me — the story of a teacher whose quirky mother suddenly enters her life causing all kinds of havoc. It's $27.98 from THINKFilm. Winners will also receive I-See-You.com romantic comedy with Beau Bridges as a guy who turns his home into an Internet reality show. This is a $19.97 Warner release.

SOUL will never be the same without James "I Feel Good" Brown, but you can remember this musical legend with his Double Dynamite DVD. Brown, who died suddenly on Christmas Day 2006, brings back the magic on this $19.95 DVD from MVD Entertainment Group. On the Web at www.mvdb2b.com or 1-800-888-0486.

ORGANIZE your entire life in one 20-page fill-in-the-blanks booklet. The Here And After Book collects vital information and lets all your wishes be known. It retails for $12.95. For more info, go to www.HereAndAfterBook.com or call 1-561-504-7209.
