Shawn Mullins "Live At The Variety Playhouse"

(MVD Visual)

By: Paul Autry

"Live At The Variety Playhouse" is a high quality concert performance in front of a packed house. The show begins with nothing more than Shawn Mullins, a guitar and the audience, who he has a clear connection with. He goes through six songs on his own before he brings a full band up to go through another nine songs, including "Beautiful Wreck" and "House Of The Rising Sun," both of which are worth the price of admission alone. The special features include the video for "Beautiful Wreck" and a quick interview with Shawn Mullins. If you're a fan of the man and his music, this is a must have addition to your collection.
