Performing under the stage name Half Pint, this Jamaican singer is a master of the Reggae genre. "Half Pint: Live in Hollywood" showcases his performance as he 'rocked the crowd' at the Key Club which is located on Los Angeles' world famous Sunset Strip. His performance is backed up by the World Citizen Band as he offers an enthusiastic audience seventeen energetic pieces that include: Greetings; Mr. Land Lord; Hypocrites; Victory; cost of Living; Just Be Good; Sally; Hold On; Substitute Lover; gonna Take a Miracle; Children of His Majesty; One Big Family; Our Own Song; Level the Vibes; have Little Faith; and Crazy Girl. Of special note are the inclusion of Interviews 1 and 2. A truly impressive performance, watching "Half Pint: Live in Hollywood" at home is the next best thing to being front-row center at his live performance!
