

This brand new remastered and extended edition DVD includes live performances and interviews with The Jam, Ian Dury, The Adverts, Madness, The Clash, Secret Affair, The Specials and many more... Following up the award winning Punk in London comes the post-punk apocalypse that is Punk in England. The second part of Wolfgang Pridgen's trilogy records the punk phenomena moving from London to the suburbs as the creative energy of punk inspired kids to experiment with new-wave, ska, mod and the rude boy music. This incredible documentary captures the punk and post-punk phenomena in all its raw power and creativity.

Bonus Materials:

Women in rock documentary featuring live performances and interviews with Siouxsie, The Slits, Girlschool and many others.

New and unseen six track set from The Adverts filmed live in 1978

Trailers for Punk in London and Reggae in a Babylon.
