

Flanagan Fights Harley's War

Harley Flanagan, a founding member of Murphy's Law and Cro-Mags, has released a solo CD and DVD package called Harley's War: Hardcore All-Stars that features just that – a who's who of big names from the New York hardcore scene. Members of Suicidal Tendencies, Agnostic Front, Bad Brains, Murphy's Law, the Business and Warzone all join Flanagan as he rips through dozens of tunes, including Cro-Mags songs and other hardcore classics like the Bad Brains' "Regulator."

The CD includes a dozen songs, plus a bonus four-song demo from 1982, while the DVD features two shows filmed in New York City (one at the legendary and now defunct CBGB) and outtakes from gigs in Japan and Germany. Flanagan also has a new book out called Harley Flanagan: Life of My Own, NYHC-OG.
