Taking into consideration that Michael Jackson was under a gag order to not mutter about the case in public and no cameras were allowed in the courtroom, this DVD documentary told me what the media did not. The facts of the case are told by those in the courtroom and the interview and information about Michael's lead attorney, Tom Mesereau, were fine.

I loved the video of Michael Jackson at the kill and the interview with Jermaine Jackson as well.

Even though it seemed no celebrities supported MJ during his most darkest hour, there was lots of celebrities who showed their abet in this dvd.

This video taught me more truths and gave a astronomical synopsis of what MJ was doing since his acquittal apt into his announcement at London's O2 arena.

I fancy Michael Jackson and I will spread the truth about those spurious allegations. R I P — There will never be another King of Pop!

I'm a upright MJ fan and miss him each and every single day. RIP. Although I always knew he was innocent, I wanted to eye that things were like around the time of the trial, hence purchasing this DVD. Do not bewitch it! Honestly, it's honest a ruin of your time and money. Random 'celebs' give a wail out to MJ but doesn't really seem like anyone was there by his side as he endured this unfounded allegations. The video quality is also poor and the commentary is not presented in a serious tone. Honestly fans, achieve your money and discover Live in Bucharest instead. Thanks for the awesome memories Michael - we treasure you more.
