Historic concert is captured on DVD and CD

THREE of the world's leading cantors joined forces for a spectacular performance in Amsterdam almost six years ago.

Cantors – A Faith in Song, recorded live in Amsterdam's historic 17th Century Portuguese Synagogue in September 2003, is released on Monday on CD and DVD, distributed by Wienerworld.

Alberto Mizrahi, of the Anshe Emet Synagogue, Chicago, Naftali Herstik, of Great Synagogue Jerusalem and Kinloss Gardens, London, and Benzion Miller, of Young Israel Beth-El of Borough Park, New York, performed with The Netherlands Theatre Orchestra and St John's Wood Synagogue's Ne'imah Singers.

The programme included Jewish secular and religious songs like Ki Lo Noeh, Sunrise Sunset, Kol Nidre and Mayn Yiddishe Mama.

Bonus tracks on the DVD include Kaddish and Avinu Malkeinu along with interviews with the three cantors.
