

POST-GAZETTE, JANUARY 15, 2010

MICHAEL JACKSON — LIFE & TIMES OF
THE KING OF POP
1958-2009 (DVD)
Rock City Ent. and MVD Visual

Michael Jackson was considered the most famous human being on earth and was definitely one of the greatest entertainers of all time. When a king dies the heir or a peer takes over the throne. The passing of Jackson, The King of Pop, is a different case. Michael is irreplaceable. He was born in Gary, Indiana on August 29, 1958, to a working class family, and he died on June 25, 2009. Jackson's last days and the memorial service are captured in this engaging film that pays respect to the King. As the world celebrates Michael's life and legacy, it is easy to see why he was the brightest star. As an artist and entertainer he still looms larger than life. The King will live forever through his music. (1 hr. 19 mins.)