

ROSA AND THE EXECUTIONER OF THE FIEND - MVD

On the 50th Anniversary of the United Nations, an elderly Holocaust survivor living across the street from the UN building receives a determined visitor on a deadly mission. Rosa has lived alone for 50 years; Amaury has hatched a plan to assassinate "the worst son of a bitch mankind has ever known." But in order to carry out his mission, Amaury will need Rosa's help. As the secret service sweeps her building in search of terrorists, Rosa must decide whether to aid the obstinate intruder, or turn him in. Gripping, touching and enigmatic at the same time, this film will keep your interest throughout!

- Nick Nicholson