

New on DVD: TV

ER: The Complete Seventh Season

Season 7 (2000-2001) of Michael Crichton's enduring medical drama opens on Dr. Carter (Noah Wyle) returning from rehab just in time to witness a high-school rivalry become a riot in the ER, and continues on apace from th ...Full review

Series Info | Buy It

Robson Arms: The Complete First Season

Set in a once grand but slowly sliding-into-decay downtown Vancouver, B.C., apartment house, this deft Canadian comedy series is an anthology by way of a sitcom, with each episode taking us behind another door and another life, and observing the way they touch, ricochet, and at times intertwine with one another. Its plays like a series of interconnected short stories, or perhaps little songs about love and loss, complete with its own troubadours to ease us into each new story. Being Canadian, it's both frank and playful about sexuality and drug use and features nudity and language that wouldn't pass censors on U.S. broadcast TV. It also has a classically dry and askew Canadian sense of humor and a tendency to sprinkle bittersweet pieces throughout the sweet- and- sour comedy. Megan Follows and Mark McKinney star in the first story, as a newly separated single mom and a widower exercise nut (respectively), and Margot Kidder and William B. Davis appear in later episodes as a married couple with serious relationship issues. John Cassini blows through every episode as the sleazy building super. Features 13 episodes on two discs, with two separate commentary tracks on the season finale and two brief featurettes. Close

Series Info | Buy It

American Dad! Volume 2

From Seth MacFarlane and his "Family Guy" collaborators, Mike Barker and Matt Weitzman, comes another animated farce, this one about an all-American family with a father who just happens to be a CIA agent. In episodes fr ...Full review

Series Info | Buy It

The War at Home: The Complete First Season

Michael Rappaport and Anita Barone are suburban parents just trying keep a lid on their kids: a 16-year-old daughter (Kaylee DeFer) eager to jump into the dating scene, an oddball 15-year-old son (Kyle Sullivan) who like ...Full review

Series Info | Clip | Buy It

Alexander Hamilton

Originally made for the PBS documentary series "American Experience,"

Top DVD Rentals

1. Night at the Museum
2. Déjà Vu
3. Dreamgirls
4. The Queen
5. Alpha Dog

Featured Articles

What's in Your DVD Player?
Morgan Freeman talks "The Shawshank Redemption" and, of course, v

Return to 'Twin Peaks'
After a long, long wait phenomenon can rejoice DVD

TV's Greatest Anthology
The format's intriguing mixed success

Best DVD Extras
From "Matrix" to "Brazil" on-DVD supplement fe