

Whitewash

Oscilloscope / Released 9/2/14

In the harsh, wintry woods of rural Quebec, Bruce (Academy Award-nominee Thomas Haden Church), a down-on-his-luck snowplow operator, accidentally kills a man during a drunken night joyride. Stricken with panic, he hides the body and escapes to the deep wilderness in hopes of outrunning both the authorities and his own conscience. But as both begin to close in, Bruce falls apart mentally and morally and mysteries unravel to reveal the man he was before the accident, the truth behind his victim, and the circumstances that brought them together in a single moment. A darkly comic noir in the vein of the Coen Brothers, Whitewash is a gripping exploration of a well-meaning everyman at the end of his rope.

<http://www.forcesofgeek.com/2014/09/that-time-of-month-dvd-blu-ray-reviews.html>