Pink: Still on Fire (Pride / MVD)

Pink is, indeed, still on fire. Always has been. The feisty diva first reared her head as a sexy pop goddess but soon enough infused her pop with rock and took it to new levels. Carving her name in pop rock history, Pink stormed the music scene with a look, style, personality and voice all her own. You don't mistake Pink for someone else, and you don't mistake someone else for Pink. Her tough but sexy mien bring the listener to his (or her) knees and brings the listener exuberant listening joy. But we know about the music, don't we? What about everything else? That's what this DVD is about; it's another fine, in-depth (double DVDs) scrutinizing of the career/life arc of a musical celebrity. With the usual alacrity, MVD and Pride DVD's latest in its ongoing series of big and bad bio docs presents fascinating facts and interviews of interest with industry peers. Thanks, guys (and gals), for another solid zoom-in on the music scene.

Region 0, full frame, 159 min.
